

SAFETY LEADER'S GUIDEBOOK

Table of Contents

Safety Programs and Promotion

- Page 14 Why Consult With Customers?
Tips on getting input from employees before developing a new process or procedure or introducing a new safety product
- Page 16 The Roll Out
How to successfully put a new program or policy “on the streets”
- Page 19 "Nobody Told Me!"
Ways to be sure your new policies and messages are noticed and understood
- Page 22 A Dash of Flavor
How to “spice up” your safety program
- Page 25 "Not Another One!"
Avoiding the “program of the month” syndrome
- Page 27 When Business Is Slow
Keeping safety alive during long stretches without any accidents
- Page 28 Do Your Employees Think Their Safety Program Is Just a State of Mind Governed By The Dollar Sign?
Ways to make sure your safety program has an image of integrity
- Page 31 The Perfect Program
Setting and accomplishing the right program goals
- Page 33 Back Patting
Creating and implementing a successful safety incentive program

- Page 36 Rah Rah Rah vs. Blah Blah Blah
Making your safety promotion more enticing
- Page 39 Plugging Your Program
More innovative ways to promote your safety program
- Page 41 Lights, Camera...Safety
Producing an in-house safety video
- Page 44 The Show is Over
Getting the most from a special event

Leadership Skills

- Page 46 The Positive Power of Praise
Why praise is effective and tips on giving it
- Page 49 "Thing" Control
Spend more time on the most important part of being a leader—relationships
- Page 51 "You Can, You Can't, You Can, You Can't"
Maintaining your credibility
- Page 53 Rumor Has It That...
Controlling and preventing rumors
- Page 56 How to "Hang Out"
Improving your visibility when your time is limited
- Page 58 "Safety Is Your Job, Not Mine"
Practical ways to overcome a common safety misconception
- Page 59 The Status Flux
Eleven ways a leader can help employees handle change

Accident Investigations and Safety Violations

- Page 66 Water Under the Bridge
Helping employees realize the value of accident investigations
- Page 68 The Grilling
Ways to conduct an effective accident interview
- Page 71 No-Fault Accidents
Tactics to overcoming excuses during an accident investigation
- Page 73 The Story Behind
A few more tips on getting correct information during an accident investigation
- Page 74 Accident Report Forms
Ten tips to improving your accident report forms
- Page 77 Caught in the Act
Tactful ways to help employees avoid behaving unsafely
- Page 79 "Rack 'Em Up"
Personal ways you can influence employees not to repeat unsafe behavior
- Page 82 "Must Be Something in the Air"
Dealing with employees who may be faking an injury
- Page 83 The Knee-Jerk Blues
By Tonya Cheek

In The Field

- Page 86 Monkey in the Middle
Becoming a helpful resource for first-line supervisors
- Page 88 I Had It, You Got It
Techniques to ensure a successful job turnover

- Page 90 Getting Started
Delivering a successful pre-job briefing
- Page 92 Static Control
More pre-job briefing tips and techniques
- Page 95 Apathy
Helping employees stay focused
- Page 98 **!@#%$
Why and how anger is an accident factor
- Page 101 Momentary Madness
Causes of workplace anger and frustration
- Page 104 "I'm Not Angry!!!"
Recognizing when employees are stressed and frustrated

Meetings, Training, and Safety Teams

- Page 108 You Can't Please All of the People Any of the Time
How to keep editors from making major changes to your lesson plans
- Page 111 From Paper to People
Effectively presenting your lesson plan
- Page 113 The Festive Agenda
Making your safety committee meetings more lively and productive
- Page 116 "Was It Good For You Too?"
Making sure you meet your meeting objectives
- Page 119 "Whose Meeting Is This Anyway?"
Keeping your meetings on track
- Page 122 Let's Meet
Details for conducting a successful meeting

- Page 126 Killing Time
Avoiding common meeting mistakes
- Page 129 The Juicy Details
How to tell stories that have impact during your safety meetings
- Page 130 What to Do When Nobody Will Answer
- Page 131 "May I Have Your Attention Please?"
Factors that cause people to pay attention
- Page 134 How to Get Someone's Attention
Training techniques to get and keep your audience engaged
- Page 136 The Attention Stealers: Tactics That Will Kill Them
- Page 139 Committee Shy
By Tonya Cheek
- Page 141 Committee Shy, Part II
By Tonya Cheek

Communication Skills

- Page 144 "That's Not What You Said!"
Factors that contribute to inaccurate communication
- Page 146 Communication Breakdown
Avoiding misunderstandings
- Page 149 Cranial Abductor Syndrome
Making sure vital instructions are understood accurately
- Page 151 Complaints
Responding to employees' complaints
- Page 155 Slip of the Bic
Reducing your writing mistakes

- Page 158 "What's Your Point?"
Sending clear, straightforward messages
- Page 162 Putting Some Punch in Your Prose
Making your messages more powerful
- Page 166 Say More with Less
Avoiding "business speak"
- Page 169 Birth Pangs
Overcoming writer's block (particularly when writing a lesson plan)
- Page 171 Creating Effective Newsletters & E-Zines

Self-Improvement

- Page 176 Invest in Yourself
Practical ways to guarantee personal success
- Page 179 Doing It New
Using innovation
- Page 181 It's About Time
Time management skills
- Page 183 Short-Term Goals
Completing projects and overcoming procrastination
- Page 185 Target Practice
Benefiting from mistakes
- Page 186 Everything Is a Safety Problem
Delegating (or not taking on) tasks that are not your responsibility

Safety Program Forms

Page 191 New Message Check Sheet

Page 193 How To Put Together an Enticing Safety Ad Campaign

Page 195 Developing an In-House Safety Marketing Plan