

Table of Tips

TIP		Page
The Beginning		8
1	Change the setting	9
2	Engage your audience	9
3	Start with a bang	10
4	Begin with benefits	11
5	Do NOT start with a joke	11
6	Display an object	12
7	Ask a rhetorical question	13
8	Tell a short story	14
9	Give them something to do	14
10	Hand out a small object	15
11	Show an intriguing slide	16
12	Memorize the first few words	16
13	Relate the topic to your audience	17
14	“Hang out” before you start	18
15	Startle your audience	19
16	Pause and look around	19
The Middle		22
17	Tie in recent events	23
18	Don’t confess	23
19	Cash in on mistakes	24

20	Use sensuous words	25
21	“Pick on” someone	26
22	Write it down	26
23	Make someone feel special	27
24	Section your topic	28
25	Practice, practice, practice	29
26	Love props	29
27	Prepare your videos	31
28	Use richly textured examples	32
29	Make one-on-one eye contact	33
30	Set up a competition	34
31	Don’t rely too much on visual aids	35
32	Make something together	36
33	Slim your statistics	36
34	Use index cards	37
35	Keep slides simple	38
36	Vary your voice	39
37	Give ‘em a break	40
38	Know names	42
39	Include names	42
40	Move when you speak	43
41	Include descriptive gestures	44
42	Test time	45

The Ending	48
43 Follow the 10% rule	49
44 Don't end with "Thank you"	49
45 Tie it together	50
46 Summarize	51
47 Only end once	51
48 Use short sentences	52
49 Promote your next meeting	53
50 End on a positive note most times	53
51 Proclaim a "call to action"	54
52 Accept compliments gracefully	54